EXPERIENCE

Faculty Social Media Assistant

University of Greenwich

📅 June 2023 - Present 📍 Greenwich, London

- Within this role I create different pieces of content (specializing within videos) for the Social Media Channels for the Faculty and sometimes for the main University pages too. I facilitate the production of content from conceptualizing to editing and then publication. I've additionally participated within the content creation for various marketing campaigns in the University (Inc. Clearing, Open Days etc.) as well as starred as the main role within the University's Profile video for the Computer Science subject on YouTube.

Student Ambassador

University of Greenwich

📅 Oct 2022 - Present 📍 Greenwich, London

- This role had allowed me to work for multiple different departments within the University including UK Student Recruitment, Outreach as well as roles within my own faculty. I had to constantly adapt my workflow and stance to appease the different stakeholders that I worked with as well as ensuring the I've furtherly received the University of Greenwich Instrumental Ambassador Award in 2024 for the contributions I've made in my role to the Scheme as a whole.

Teaching Assistant

Brompton Academy

📅 Jan 2022 - Jul 2022 📍 Gillingham, Kent

- This role involved me becoming a Teacher Assistant for a Year 10 Business Studies Class within my Secondary School. From assisting the students with understanding the material to help delivering lessons to assisting the Teacher with certain aspects of delivering their lesson as well as preparing and designing resources too.
